

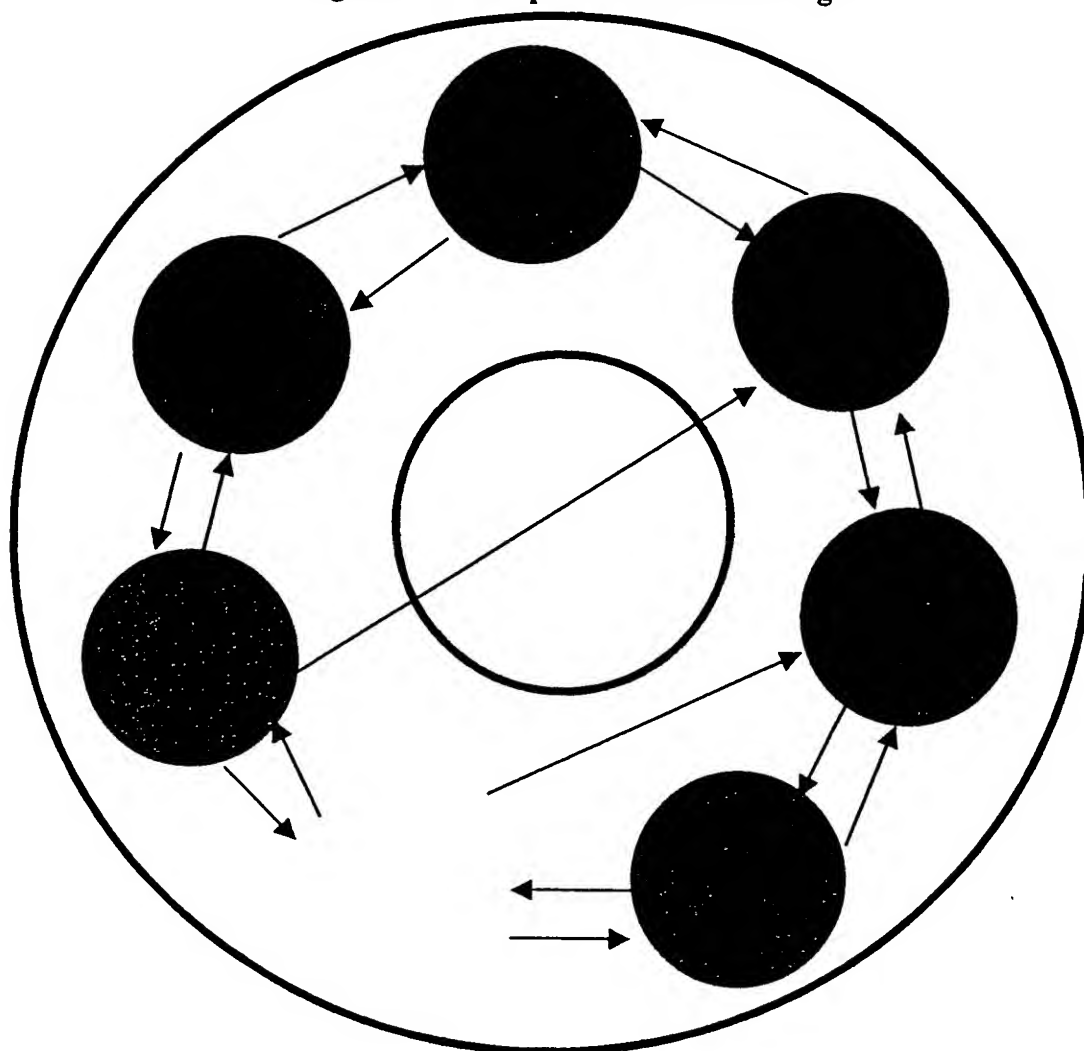

Figure 1 – Full Spectrum of Visible Light

Combinations include the entire circuit of the visible color spectrum in any direction, as well as going from one color's range to a second color or through the range of a third color or fourth color. Some basic examples include:

Violet to Indigo
Violet to Blue
Violet to Green
Violet to Yellow
Violet to Orange
Violet to Red
Violet to White
Violet to Black
Indigo to Violet
Indigo to Blue
Indigo to Green
Indigo to Yellow
Indigo to Orange
Indigo to Red
Indigo to White
Indigo to Black
Blue to Violet

Blue to Indigo
Blue to Green
Blue to Yellow
Blue to Orange
Blue to Red
Blue to White
Blue to Black
Green to Violet
Green to Indigo
Green to Blue
Green to Yellow
Green to Orange
Green to Red
Green to White
Green to Black
Yellow to Violet
Yellow to Indigo

Yellow to Blue
Yellow to Green
Yellow to Orange
Yellow to Red
Yellow to White
Yellow to Black
Orange to Violet
Orange to Indigo
Orange to Blue
Orange to Green
Orange to Yellow
Orange to Red
Orange to White
Orange to Black
Red to Violet
Red to Indigo
Red to Blue

Red to Green
Red to Yellow
Red to Orange
Red to White
Red to Black
White to Black
White to Red
White to Orange
White to Yellow
White to Green
White to Blue
White to Indigo
White to Violet
Black to White

Fig. 2

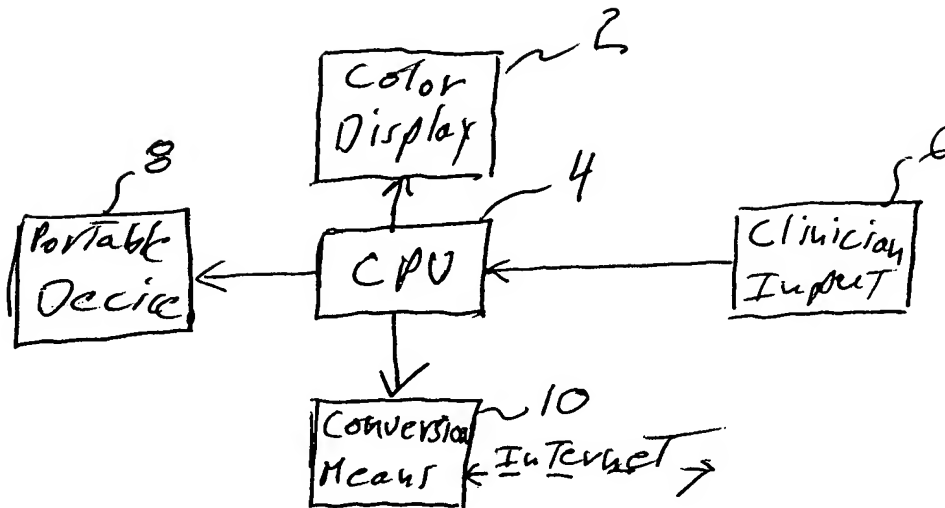

FIG. 3

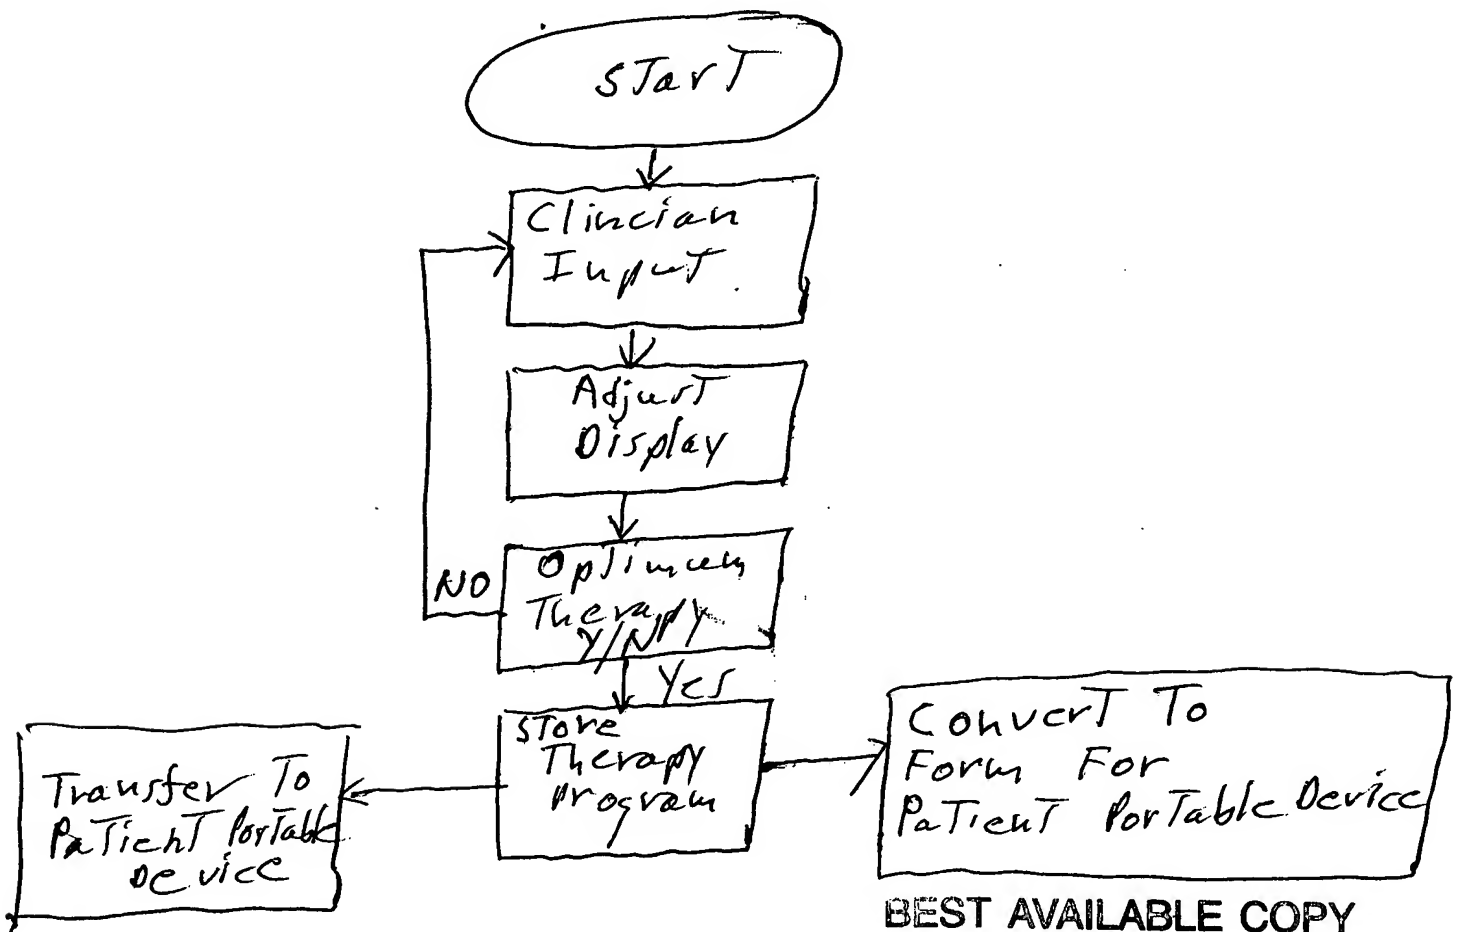

Figure 4

